

Discussion group questions

Some of these questions are personal and others are more general. You will find it helpful to have heard the talk so why not listen at <http://leightonbaptists.org.uk/media-links/current-teaching/>. Please pick and choose which questions to use!

- How do we see Jesus' power demonstrated through these verses?
- How do we see Jesus' mercy demonstrated through these verses?
- If you had been the two disciples, what would it require you to do what Jesus said (v1-4)?
- Of all the things Jesus has asked us to do, which is the one we are struggling to do the most? (For example, love an enemy, give or serve regularly, stop a habit) What might it require us to do what he says?
- How are the people right, and wrong, about Jesus(v7-11)?
- Why is Jesus angry in the temple? What ought we to be angry about in our society or town?

At Work

- In the run up to Easter, how can we point people to the importance of Jesus' journey to the cross in our workplaces?

Digging deeper

- If we fail to see what kind of King Jesus is, then we will fail to see what kind of Kingdom he brings. How does our view of the Kingdom of God reflect Jesus rule as King in these verses?

Pray for one another, that this Easter week we would see and share the victory over sin and death one at the cross of Christ.

See something amazing
This Easter

The King and I

Matthew 21:1-17

Sunday March 20th 2016

What kind of a King is Jesus?

The Peaceful King—v1-7

The saving King—v8-11

Knowing
Sharing Jesus

Hockliffe Street
Baptist Church Leighton Buzzard

The King of the outsider—v12-13

The unexpected rule of the people's King

The King of those suffering—v14

•Is he your King?

The King of the helpless—v15-17

Conversation starter:

What are the common character traits of a ruler?